TESTAMENT OF YOUTH orionbooks co uk

heyday of the Yellow Book and the Green Carnation I would confidently bet that none of my relatives had ever heard of Max Beerbohm or Aubrey Beardsley and if indeed the name of Oscar Wilde awakened any response in their minds it was not admiration of his works but disapproval of his morals My father's family came from Staffordshire the first place names bound up with my childish

Testament of Youth by Vera Brittain Goodreads

I always thought of Testament of Youth as a war book but this book is in fact much more than that yes the central part of the book which consists of three parts does recount Vera Brittain's first hand experience of the Western Front where she served as a Voluntary Aid Detachment VAD nurse but this is also in fact the watershed between the society that was before and the society to
